NLI Signing Period

The signing period for six sports programs (football, field hockey, men’s and women’s soccer, and men’s and women’s track & field) began on February 4th. There are specific regulations for the coaching staffs as well as representatives of UNC Athletics (employees and boosters) related to the signing of a National Letter of Intent.

The dates of the signing period are:

- Football (Regular): 2/4/09 to 4/1/09
- Field Hockey: 2/4/09 to 8/1/09
- Soccer: 2/4/09 to 8/1/09
- Track & Field: 2/4/08 to 8/1/09

Coaching Staff Telephone Call Rules

Soccer, Field Hockey, and Track & Field: Coaching staff members may make unlimited telephone calls to a prospect from February 4 through February 6.

Football: Coaching staff members may make unlimited telephone calls to prospects from February 2 at 7:00 am until February 6 at 7:00 am.

Please note that the sports associated with this NLI signing period are in a dead period from Monday, February 2 through Thursday, February 5. During a dead period, it is not permissible to make in-person recruiting contacts or evaluations on or off the UNC campus. This also prohibits official or unofficial visits to UNC’s campus, as well as the provision of complimentary admissions to prospects for campus athletics contests. See Bylaw 13.02.4.4 for more details.

FAQs – Regulations Regarding Prospects Who Have Signed National Letters of Intent

Q. How long is a prospective student-athlete considered to be a prospect?

A. A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after signing a National Letter of Intent or financial aid agreement to attend UNC. The prospect, the Univer-

Ticket Office

The T.O. Goes Bowling

At the end of December, the athletic ticket office was inundated with Meineke Car Care Bowl ticket sales! Our fans bought 22,000 through our ticket office, which promised a stadium full of Carolina blue, but also promised to make a challenging two weeks for the ticket office staff.

The ticket office has made many technological improvements since our last bowl game, which made the ordering process more efficient for both our office and Carolina fans. Soon after Carolina’s seventh win, the ticket office sent electronic ACC Championship and bowl game applications to Rams Club members and season ticket holders. This gave fans the opportunity to request games they would like to attend, given Carolina was selected. Fans had the chance to make preliminary bowl game arrangements in advance, and gave the ticket office an idea of how many tickets our school could sell.

Due to a 12-game football schedule and an ACC Championship game, there is considerably less time than in the past between the bowl game announcements and the actual game. Bottom line: Once our office received the bowl game tickets, we had a three-day deadline in which to mail them to purchasers. In those three days, the ticket office staff was responsible for building the Bank of America Stadium on our ticketing software; counting the bowl tickets to make sure we received all of them properly; assigning the tickets on the computer; hand stuffing the tickets in properly addressed ticket envelopes; and stuffing the ticket envelopes in the corresponding Fed Ex envelope for each purchaser. From 8 a.m. on Wednesday, December 17, to 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, December 18, we shipped all 22,000 tickets! At the end of the assignment and shipping process, the vast majority of ticket purchasers received their tickets before Christmas. It was massively tedious, but efficient!

Over the holidays, the ticket office set up a special bowl game voicemail that was checked regularly, in an effort to solve last minute ticket issues, and we reconvened in Charlotte on December 26th to tie up loose ends and organize various game day duties. Game day went smoothly, thanks to a lot of preparation and our gracious hosts at the Bank of America Stadium.

We were all thrilled to be a part of a football bowl game, and hope it is one of many more!
DEPARTMENT NEWS

Wedding Bells

Congratulations to rowing assistant coach Stephen Arthur-Wong, who married Amanda Frazier on Jan. 31 in Amanda’s parents’ backyard in Gainesville, Fla.

The two met as undergraduates at Rollins College, where they both were members of the rowing team. Amanda now works for Self-Help, a community development lender and real estate developer in Durham.

In an effort to merge their names into one family name, they considered various options (one of the rejects: Frazong) and settled on Frazier-Wong, which they’ll both begin using this summer.

Best wishes to Stephen and Amanda!

Promotions for John Montgomery, Cricket Lane

John Montgomery, Executive Director of the Rams Club, and Cricket Lane, Director of Student-Athlete Development, have received promotions to Senior Associate and Assistant Directors of Athletics, respectively.

“John is a valuable member of our administrative team and is involved in many different areas of our Carolina Athletics that go beyond fundraising,” said Director of Athletics Dick Baddour. “Cricket does an outstanding job, especially with the student-athletes. She provides support to them in a number of ways that have direct impact on their experience here at Carolina and in their lives beyond UNC.”

Montgomery came to Chapel Hill in 2001 after serving as director of athletic fundraising at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. He spent five years at SMU, where he directed the campaign to build a new football stadium.

Montgomery was graduated from Radford in 1981 and earned his master’s in sports administration at Western Illinois in 1985. He has worked in collegiate administration since 1984 at Radford, UNC Greensboro, SMU and Carolina. He also worked for one season with the Baltimore Orioles.

Lane is in her sixth year at Carolina. She is responsible for life skills programming, which includes personal development, career development, community outreach and the Carolina Leadership Academy program for freshmen.

Lane earned her undergraduate degree in psychology from George Mason then went on to earn a master’s in counseling from the University of Detroit and a Ph.D. in counseling from Wayne State. She is currently a member of the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Advisory Team.

Davis Honored For Service

Marc Davis, LAT, ATC/PT, will be retiring at the end of this month after serving 33 years as the Head Athletic Trainer for men’s basketball and men’s and women’s swimming and diving. He will be honored on March 7 as the University/Collegiate North Carolina Athletic Trainer of the Year. This award will be presented to him at the North Carolina Athletic Trainer’s Association Spring Symposium in Concord, N.C. This is in addition to receiving the award for the outstanding physical therapist of the year in 1998 by the North Carolina Physical Therapy Association. Most recently, Marc was honored with the UNC’s athletic department highest honor of “Priceless Gem”.

Please join the Sports Medicine Staff in congratulating Marc on these honors. He will be greatly missed by our staff, campus health services, the athletic department (especially the men’s basketball and swimming & diving programs) and the university.

Congratulations, Marc!

Please send newsletter comments, suggestions, corrections or submissions for future issues to Dana Gelin at dgelin@unc.edu or 962-0083
Stacey Harris
• Administrative Assistant/ Facility Manager

Born and raised: Christiansburg, Va. and Eden, N.C.
Education: Attended UNC Greensboro and the School of Information and Library Science at Carolina

Family: I’m the middle of three sisters. Mom and Dad, David and JoAnn; two sisters and their husbands: Susan/Roger, Becky/Marcus and my nephew, Levi

Athletic background: I played softball in high school and coached cheerleading at Chapel Hill High School for 10 years before retiring 😊

Before your current position: I worked at Chapel Hill High School where I handled their student information database and assisted with testing and class scheduling

How long at UNC? Seven years in November

Current position at UNC and number of years in that position: I work with Beth Miller and the Olympic Sports Programs, and I also work with game operations. It will be 7 years in November!

Job description: I help the Athletic Department in any way I can – I work directly under Beth Miller so anything that she or the senior staff needs me to do, I do. I also supervise the Olympic Sport administrative assistants staff, organize the annual monogram day picnic, and produce the department staff manual (now available online, whoo hoo!), to name a few things. I also manage Carmichael Auditorium but am currently on about a year vacation from that. With game operations, I am the student gate supervisor at football games, usher supervisor at men’s basketball games, and game day manager for many other events throughout the year.

What’s something about your job that other people would be surprised to know? The type of items that I confiscate from the students at football games at the student gate! (The latest and greatest – a coloscopy bag!)

What’s the best thing about your job? I get to work with the most amazing Athletic Department in the country

Favorite pastimes: Reading, cooking, attending sporting events, and spending time with Chris & Max, my family & friends, and mostly with my nephew, Levi – who tells me I’m his best friend forever!

Favorite restaurant: Maggiano’s

Favorite book: Harry Potter!!

Favorite TV shows: Grey’s Anatomy, Desperate Housewives

Last movie you saw and grade you’d give it: Shrek for the one millionth time with my nephew ... Stacey & Levi give it two thumbs up!

A fun fact about you: I am a home design consultant for Pottery Barn

Tom Sander
• Director of Operations, Women’s Soccer

Born and raised: Lancaster, Pa.
Education: Graduated from Hempfield (yes, it means what it says) High School and the University of North Carolina with a B.S. in biology.

Family: Two younger brothers and a mother.

Athletic background: Played rec soccer and pee wee baseball in elementary school, but eventually gave up athletics for the Boy Scouts.

Before your current position: Landscape, pizza deliveryman, bookstore clerk, concessions manager, UPS deliveryman, short order cook, lab rat for pharmaceutical companies

How long at UNC? Started out as a student manager and graduated into the current position. 17 years total.

Job description: Alumni relations, community relations, travel, equipment, statistics, video, fundraising, compliance, housing, academics, game operations. Everything but recruiting and coaching.

What’s something about your job that other people would be surprised to know? I’m only one of two (that I know of) directors of operations for a women’s soccer team in the country. (The other is Texas A&M.)

What’s the best thing about your job? The dichotomy between the intensity and focus on the field and the chaos and laid-back atmosphere off the field. It never gets boring.

Favorite pastimes: Hiking, fishing, restoring old arcade games

Favorite restaurant: 411 West

Favorite TV show: The X-Files

Last movie you saw and grade you’d give it: Gone Baby Gone : A

A fun fact about you: All of my vehicles’ model years are 20 years apart: ‘66 Honda motorcycle, ’76 Ford pickup, ’86 Honda Accord. It’s not how I planned it, it just worked out that way.

Biggest pet peeve: Having to pump up a ball and finding the pump doesn’t have a needle.

Dream job: National Park ranger, riding through the park on horseback with the sun at my back and dog at my side.

Greatest athletic achievement: Getting an A in 7th grade P.E.

What would you do with a completely free day? What’s that? Probably get caught up on yard work. They don’t come around that often, so I can’t plan for one.

If you could have dinner with anyone, who would it be and why? My father. He passed away when I was very young and I’d love to be able to pick his brain about some stuff.

What’s a little-known talent that you have? More like a deformity, but my thumbs are double-jointed and can bend back on themselves.

What would be your dream vacation? Three weeks to backpack and canoe around Colorado, New Mexico, and Arizona

If you won the lottery, what’s the first thing you’d buy? A cell phone that gets decent reception (if it exists).
Academic Support success in the fall

Even while spending plenty of time working on the “athlete” side of student-athlete, Tar Heels are excelling in the classroom. In the fall semester of the 2008-09 school year, 172 Carolina student-athletes earned Dean’s List recognition and a total of 344 finished the semester with grade point averages of 3.0 or better.

A big hand to the five Tar Heels who finished the semester with perfect 4.0 GPA’s. They are: Chip Peterson (men’s swimming and diving), Katy Pritchett (women’s swimming and diving), Rebecca Crabb (women’s soccer), John Powell (men’s fencing) and Meredith Newton (women’s lacrosse).

Congratulations to all!

AD’s Scholar-Athletes Named

Twenty-six student-athletes have been selected as recipients of the 2008-09 Athletic Director’s Scholar-Athlete awards. The honor recognizes the top student-athlete on each Tar Heels squad, with one male and one female chosen to represent the indoor and outdoor track & field teams.

ity, its staff, and boosters are all governed by recruiting regulations until the prospect reports for regular season practice or attends his/her first day of classes in any regular term (i.e., fall or spring).

Q. Is it permissible for athletics department staff to contact a prospect who has signed an NLI?

A. Yes. As of August 2008, noncoaching institutional staff members may make telephone calls to or receive calls from prospective student-athletes (or their parents or legal guardians) AFTER the calendar day on which the prospective student-athlete signs an NLI.

Q. Is it permissible for staff members or a booster to assist a prospect (who has signed an NLI) with pre-college expenses?

A. No. Neither UNC staff nor boosters are permitted to offer, provide, or arrange financial assistance to cover a prospect’s expenses (educational or otherwise) for any period prior to his or her enrollment. This applies even to those prospects who have signed an NLI or financial agreement to attend UNC.

Please remember that the same prohibitions against the provision of extra benefits to currently-enrolled student-athletes also extend to all prospects.

If you have any questions about NCAA regulations pertaining to prospects who have signed an NLI, please do not hesitate to contact the Compliance Office at 962-6000.

Biggest pet peeve: Negativity

Dream job: My dream job is to be a Geospatial Information Systems Analyst for the CIA, but I’d also love to be a stay-at-home-Stacey too.

Greatest athletic achievement: My cheerleading team taking runner-up at Nationals

What would you do with a completely free day? Could you rephrase that question? I don’t understand what you mean by “completely free day”. Just joking! I would probably go to the spa and then take naps all day! 😊

If you could have dinner with anyone, who would it be and why? Coach Kay Yow so that I could just sit and listen to her wise inspiration.

Little-known talents: Fishing and playing video games

Dream vacation: A month in Tahiti!

If you won the lottery, what’s the first thing you’d buy? A dream home, and then probably another lottery ticket! 😊

Tax Preparation Information

The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) is a refundable federal income tax credit for low-income working individuals and families. To claim the EITC, you must meet certain criteria and income limits. For assistance in determining eligibility and any questions regarding the EITC, employees should visit www.irs.gov/eitc or speak with their tax preparer.

In addition, students at the Law School and members of the Orange County community will provide free income tax preparation for residents of the University community. All volunteers are IRS-certified and file returns electronically. Residents are eligible if they meet the following criteria: make less than $50,000 per year; are not self-employed or have rental income; and have valid Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers.

Services are provided at the below locations, times and dates:

- Carrboro Town Hall: Mondays, 4-7 p.m.; Tuesdays, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.
- Seymour Center, Homestead Road: Thursdays, noon-4 p.m., 5-9 p.m.; Fridays, 1-5 p.m.; Saturdays, 9 a.m.-1 p.m.
- Community Center, Estes Drive: Wednesdays, 11 a.m.-3 p.m.
- UNC Law School: Tuesdays, 5-7 p.m.; Saturdays, 1-3 p.m.

To schedule an appointment, call 919-968-2086. For more information, see: http://studentorgs.law.unc.edu/vita/default.aspx or www.co.orange.nc.us/aging/vita.asp
Looking for Leadership

The Carolina Leadership Academy, under the direction of Senior Associate Athletics Director John Blanchard, sport psychologist Jeff Janssen, Assistant Director Shelley Johnson, and Student-Athlete Development Director Cricket Lane, continues to educate UNC student-athletes to become successful leaders in the athletic and academic arena.

Each month freshmen through senior student-athletes engage in leadership workshops as part of the CREED, Rising Stars and Veteran Leaders program to become leaders by example and vocal leaders in their athletic communities. Throughout the year, student-athletes operate based upon the infamous quote by Helen Keller.

“I long to accomplish a great and noble tasks, but it is my chief duty to accomplish humble tasks as though they were great and noble. The world is moved along, not only by the mighty shoves of its heroes, but also by the aggregate of the tiny pushes of each honest worker.” – Helen Keller

Each month leaders are called upon to provide specific examples of putting theory of leadership training into practice. The following are recent examples of how the UNC Tar Heels are practicing leadership in their everyday lives:

Gymnastics

“Over the winter holiday the women’s gymnastics team had a meet in Cancun. Our team started out on the floor exercise. During this rotation three people fell and performed poorly compared to their individual standards. A fellow teammate rose to the challenge and knocked out a stellar floor routine following three disappointing routines. This recharged us all as a team and we went on to have a great meet. This is really an example of stepping up to the plate and leading through adversity as well as performing under pressure.”

Women’s Rowing

“During our winter training trip the women’s rowing team takes the varsity squad as well as 12 members of the novice (freshman) team. Since the teams are usually separate, this could have been a very disconnected training trip. However, the sophomores really stepped up and did a great job of making the freshmen feel motivated and a part of the team. Pulling together in and out of the boat made the training trip that much more productive.”

Soccer

“One of our current teammates is training in Australia for the U21 team. She is a motivation to us all and we continue to pull for her because of how hard she works each day in practice. She respects us all as players and people and therefore we love to follow her progress. She is a true leader by example.”

Women’s Rowing

“Last week I was training in an erg rowing machine following a tough winter training trip. Expecting to see no one, I was very surprised to find a teammate working out and breaking a sweat on an off day. She is truly a motivation to younger members of our team through her hard work and leadership by example.”

Faculty/Staff Family Day Kicks Off

The department’s Faculty/Staff Family Day program kicked off Jan. 29 to great success. About 70 faculty/staff members and their families attended women’s basketball game against Wake Forest as part of the first program event.

The program’s mission is to increase UNC Faculty and Staff knowledge, involvement, and interest in UNC Athletics. Our specific goal for this semester is to organize several Faculty/Staff Family Days at select spring sporting events that would involve faculty, staff, and their families along with Athletic Department representatives, coaches and players. We hope that many Carolina families will join us at these events to have fun, and to learn a bit more about our Olympic sports, our coaches, and our student athletes.

Schedule of upcoming Faculty/Staff Family Days:

- Faculty/Staff Family Day at Tennis: Sunday, Feb. 8, 1 p.m. vs. Florida (Women’s)
- Faculty/Staff Family Day at Lacrosse: Friday, Feb. 20 at 6 p.m.
  5 p.m. vs. Oregon (Women’s)
  7:30 p.m. vs. Navy (Men’s)
- Faculty Staff Family Day at Baseball: Saturday, March 7, 2 p.m.
  vs. Clemson
- Faculty Staff Family Day at Softball: Tuesday, March 24, 5 p.m.
  vs. Ohio State

Carolina Kids Club Action

Upcoming Carolina Kids Club events:

- Friday, Feb. 6 at 7 p.m.
  Carolina Kids Club Day: Wrestling vs. NC State at Eddie Smith Field House. Autographs after the match!

- Sunday, Feb. 8 at 1 p.m.
  Carolina Kids Club Day: Women’s tennis vs. Florida at Cone-Kenfield Tennis Center. Autographs after the match!

- Sunday, Feb. 22, 2009 at 1 p.m.
  Carolina Kids Club Day at Men’s Lacrosse vs. Colgate at 1 p.m. Autographs after the game!

Please RSVP to Carolinakids@unca.unc.edu for more info or if you are interested in attending any of the events.

Commuter Alternative Program

Thinking about the CAP program but not sure yet? Don’t forget, you can join CAP for a 30-day trial without giving up your parking permit. You will not be able to take advantage of the $20 vanpool subsidy, or the free annual Triangle Transit GoPass. You will receive a Park & Ride decal, giving you access to 5 additional park & ride lots and a membership card, opening the door to discounts with several area merchants and a chance to win prizes distributed at random throughout the year.

Call 962-3951 and ask to speak to someone about the trial CAP program. Or go to www.dps.unc.edu for more information.
