New Off-Campus Recruiting Legislation
Effective Immediately

Intent: In sports other than basketball, to specify that during June, July and August, a coach replaced for the purpose of off-campus recruiting activities is not required to return to the institution's campus before engaging in additional recruiting activities, provided no more than the permissible number of off-campus recruiters in the particular sport engage in recruiting activities each day.

11.7.4.3 Off-Campus Recruiting -- At Any One Time. It is permissible for a coach to leave campus to engage in off-campus contact or evaluation before another coach who is off campus actually returns to campus, provided the total number of coaches recruiting on behalf of the institution at any time does not exceed the permissible number. The coach being replaced must complete his or her recruiting activities before another coach may begin any off-campus recruiting activity. Further, the replaced coach may not engage in additional recruiting activities until after he or she has returned to the institution's campus.

11.7.4.3.1 Exception – Men’s Basketball – July Evaluation Periods. During the July evaluation period, a replaced coach is not required to return to the institution’s campus before engaging in additional recruiting activities, provided no more than three coaches engage in off-campus recruiting each day.

Kenan Reseating in Progress

Those who work in student-athlete development and academic services have probably noticed a few new faces on the North Side of Kenan Stadium. Since May 4th, The Rams Club has operated a Kenan Stadium Seat Selection Call Center in the North Koury Box. This is the first year active Rams Club members are able to select their seats and parking through the Equity Seating Plan—in order to accommodate each member’s needs, The Rams Club has offered selections completed online, over the phone, or in person at the selection center. This is about an eight week process…giving those working at the call center (The Rams Club, Sports Marketing, Ticket Office, and Operations staffs) some insights on day-to-day life at Kenan Stadium.

So far, we’ve made the following observations:

• James Spurling really can be everywhere, all the time.
• Getting the field ready for game day starts…now.
• Our student-athletes make running stadium stairs look really easy.
• Local restaurants sell lunch for $5 every week day at Gate 2 (really something everyone should check out!). [Editor’s note: See page 2 for the lineup and schedule of restaurants]
• The new video boards at Kenan are ginormous!
• The North Koury Box is the best place to ride out a rain storm.
• A few games a year should be scheduled at 8 a.m., when the North Side of the stadium is in the shade.
• Kenan Stadium is beautiful all year, any time of day!

Sports medicine would like to thank our coaches for their assistance in collecting health insurance information from their student-athletes. Please remember that if you are receiving these forms back from parents/student-athletes that they need to go to sports medicine as soon as possible.

They should be sent via campus mail to CB #7470, Attn: Stacie Austin. This information is imperative for sports medicine to provide quick and efficient medical coverage to all of our student athletes. If you have any questions please contact your staff athletic trainer directly.

New Tar Heel

- Congratulations to Amy (Rams Club) and Eric (men’s basketball) Hoots, who welcomed son Brady William Hoots on May 21. Welcome, Brady! Best wishes to the whole family.

New Faces, New Roles

- After a year as a volunteer assistant, Tyler Adams has been named assistant coach for the volleyball team. Prior to coming to UNC in 2010, he served two years as an assistant coach at University of Central Florida, his alma mater. He also has played and coached for a professional team in Germany. Adams played club volleyball at UCF and also coached the team.

- Tom Timmermans has joined the Compliance Office as Assistant Director of Compliance for Financial Aid. A 2004 Notre Dame graduate, he comes to Chapel Hill from his alma mater, where he served as Coordinator of Compliance.

- After just over five months as a temporary employee, Diane Crocker has joined the Business Office full-time and serves as the administrative assistant. She and her husband, Crock, who works for Young Life, moved to Chapel Hill from Columbus, Ohio, about two years ago. They have three daughters: Marie, 25 (accountant, lives in Cincinnati with her husband Kurt); Tiffany, 23 (played basketball at Gannon University and is now assistant women’s basketball coach there) and Lindsey, 21, who attends Virginia Tech. Welcome, Tom and Diane! Congratulations, Tyler!

Happy Birthday in June to:

Return of the Lunch Trucks

Once again, the best summer lunch deal on campus can be found at Kenan Stadium Gate 2 in the form of the lunch trucks/tables. Each day from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. a local establishment serves up a $5 lunch special to campus denizens and anyone else who cares to stop by. This summer’s schedule is:

- Monday – Noodles (various noodle dishes)
- Tuesday – B-ski’s (wraps)
- Wednesday – Pie Pushers (pizza)
- Thursday – Qdoba (burritos)
- Friday – Only Burger (um ... burgers)

Note: The ultra-popular Only Burger has other commitments on some Fridays. When that happens, there’s an equally tasty stand-in.

At left, Jaimie Lee (Academics) checks out the menu for Pie Pushers, which serves up really good pizza, garlic rolls and salads outside Gate 2 at Kenan Stadium on Wednesdays.
Eric Biener
• Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach, Olympic Sports

Born and raised: I was born in New York, lived there until I was 12, then moved to south Florida

Education: Bachelor’s degree from the University of Central Florida (Sports & Fitness), Master’s degree from UNC (Exercise Physiology)

Family: Parents live in Florida; one sister, who also lives in Florida with my brother-in-law, niece, and nephew

Athletic background: I wrestled in high school and played water polo in college.

Before your current position: I interned at UCF, before climbing the ladder as a volunteer and part-time coach when I came to Carolina

Years in current position: 2.5

Job description: Training (on some level) seven of our Olympic sports teams to improve their athleticism and (ideally) keep them injury-free. My primary teams are men’s lacrosse, men’s and women’s tennis, gymnastics, and the middle-distance group on the track team.

What’s something about your job that other people would be surprised to know? The preparation that goes into each workout

What are the best things about your job? Seeing the growth and maturation of a person as they progress from a freshman to a senior

Favorite pastimes: Playing and watching sports, spending time with friends and family, traveling, reading

Favorite restaurant: Sweet Tomatoes

Favorite book: “Why We Win” by Billy Packer

Favorite TV show: Seinfeld

Last movie you saw and grade you’d give it: Hangover 2. A/A-

A fun fact about you: I started a road-trip with some friends from college where we’re trying to visit all 30 major league baseball stadiums. It’s still early, so we’ve only done Florida, Kansas City, St. Louis, and Tampa Bay so far.

Pet peeve: Disrespect

Dream job: Quality-control/taste-tester for a cereal company. I eat cereal like it’s my job now, so I might as well get paid for it

Greatest athletic achievement: As an athlete, it was being a part of UCF water polo’s first-ever appearance in the state championship game. As a coach prior to Carolina, it was being a part of helping UCF football go from an 0-11 season in 2004 to a division championship and the first bowl game in school history in 2005.

If you could have dinner with anyone, who would it be? My grandfather. He died a couple of months before I was born, and I’ve been told we’re a lot alike.

What’s a little-known talent that you have? My knowledge of useless and obscure movie and TV trivia

What would be your dream vacation? I’ve never been to Europe, so probably a European vacation – not necessarily National Lampoon-style though

If you won the lottery, what’s the first thing you’d buy? A new car. My Saturn’s getting a little old…

Campus Rec
Summer Wellness Workshops
This summer, Campus Recreation is offering employees energizing, interactive (and free!) workshops to educate and motivate! If you have questions on anything you see here, email dbabcock@email.unc.edu.

Beginning Run Clinic
Wednesday, June 22 / 5:15-6:00p / Fetzer 104
A lecture-style, 45-minute workshop free to all employees. This workshop is geared toward people with little or no running experience. Topics covered will include choosing appropriate running shoes and apparel, basic nutrition and hydration, safety, progression of training and running mechanics. Please RSVP to dbabcock@email.unc.edu. After 5pm, free parking is available in the Cobb Deck or on Stadium Drive.

Workout on the Go
Thursday, July 7 / 12:15-1:00p / HSL Room 129
Stop using the "don't have time for exercise" excuse and learn how to make the most of the time you do have. This workshop, free to all employees, will cover the core components of a complete exercise program and some tips to squeeze exercise into your day. Please RSVP to dbabcock@email.unc.edu.

Beginning Biking
Wednesday, July 20 / 5:15-6:00p / Fetzer 104
Another free, lecture-style workshop covering all you need to know to bike your way to fitness. Topics will include bike fit and selection, cycling shoes and apparel, basic nutrition and hydration, and safety and etiquette tips for riding on the roads or sidewalks. Please RSVP to dbabcock@email.unc.edu. After 5pm, free parking is available in the Cobb deck or on Stadium Drive.

Please direct newsletter comments, suggestions, corrections and/or submissions for future issues to Dana Gelin at dgelin@unca.edu or 962-0083
Weddings, Weddings, Weddings

It’s been a busy spring for weddings in the Department of Athletics.

• On April 23, Bobby Hundley (Athletic Communications) married Lauren Hipp, a 2008 UNC graduate, at Chapel Hill Country Club. Lauren works in external affairs at UNC Lineberger. The two honeymooned in Cary as Carolina won the ACC title in women’s tennis.

• Next up was the rare intradepartmental wedding: On April 30, Emily Cozart (Rams Club) married Josh Boone (Ticket Office) at the Church of the Holy Family. The two met waaaaay back when Emily, who also has been a member of the ticket office staff, worked in men’s basketball. They held their reception at, yes, Chapel Hill Country Club, and honeymooned in St. Lucia.

• On May 7, Clara Andrews married David Perry at Orange United Methodist Church, with a reception at the ever-popular (and with good reason) Chapel Hill Country Club. David actually works off-campus, for Wells Fargo, but he did go to UNC. The two, who met in 2007, honeymooned in the Dominican Republic.

Emily is now known as Emily Boone, and Clara is Clara Perry. Both Bobby and Josh are keeping their names.

Congratulations and best wishes to all!
(And stay tuned for more wedding news and photos next month.)
